Join Brenda Farrell and her husband, Jon Sunderland on this dynamic and in-depth lifestyle travel adventure on mainland Portugal and Madeira Island. Through this specially-designed itinerary you will delve into centuries of history, culture, tradition - and wine. "We have hand-picked hotels where location and comfort are equally important and have crafted private and unique touring experiences so that you see the best that Portugal has to offer. Jon and I are confident that you, too, will fall in love with Portugal and the gorgeous sub-tropical island of Madeira, just a short flight from Lisbon, where tradition contrasts – and complements - modern-day living. We look forward to showing you Portugal - from the inside."
